

INFORMATION

for Directors of Maple Street Co-operative

Thank you for your interest in becoming a Director!

The Board of the Maple Street Co-op is responsible for representing the members and leading the governance and strategic direction of the Co-op.

Maple Street Co-operative is a trading co-operative with share capital. It is regulated by the Queensland Government Office of Fair Trading and the provisions of the Co-operatives National Law Act 2020. We suggest you search “Queensland Government cooperatives” which will take you to the Queensland government page which gives information about cooperatives and directors’ duties.

We welcome new directors who can add experience, energy and integrity to the Cooperative and will contribute to its long-term sustainability and growth. We appreciate a diversity of skills and especially value skills in teamwork, communication, sound judgement, strategic thinking and personal integrity.

Remuneration: The position is considered to be largely voluntary, however, Directors currently receive an additional five percent discount at the Co-op, bringing the total discount to ten percent, plus reimbursement of any meeting, committee or meeting preparation expenses. Remuneration can change as determined by members at the yearly AGM.

Eligibility: Directors must be current members of the Coop and over 18 years old. They may not be current employees of the Coop.

Election Process : Nomination forms must be signed by two members and be submitted one month prior to the annual AGM. Written information about directors standing for election will be available to members prior to the election and nominees will also have the opportunity to make a brief presentation to members at the AGM. Interim directors can be chosen by the Board if a vacancy occurs mid-year. They must be confirmed at the next AGM.

Commitment:

- Directors attend regular meetings held in normal business hours at the Red Room, Rosetta Books. There are normally 6 three-hour meetings a year (currently the 3rd Tuesday 9am to 12pm, every second month; changeable & scheduled by agreement each year to suit all directors), plus the AGM.
- Directors need to be able to use email for regular communication. Directors will normally receive reports each month and five days before any scheduled meeting and are expected to have read all meeting papers prior to attendance. Typically, one hour reading each month to review results and updates.
- If major projects are undertaken the Directors can assist management by involvement in a board sub-committee but this is optional and depends on director interest, skills and willing to commit.

Qualifications:

The board strives to have a balance of necessary skills, experience and background. We do not expect directors to have skills in all areas, but strive for a balanced team. Board induction and access to training programs are provided to directors for ongoing education.

The general areas of qualification we are looking for are:

- Personal integrity and ability to be part of a team

-- Board members must be willing to impartially represent the interests of all stakeholders, especially members, but also including customers, staff, suppliers and the general community
 -- A high level of personal integrity, which includes ability to maintain confidentiality, honesty, respect for other opinions, a balanced approach to working in a team and the ability to put the interests of the Co-operative before personal interest.

- Professional business and leadership skills

 -- Directors need to be able to understand (or learn) monthly financial reports and the legal requirements of directorship and the retail business.
 -- We use a modified Carver Model of Policy Governance as a base. It is helpful to have an understanding of this. Information is available on the web and the Co-op Governance Policies and procedures will be provided to you when you are elected.
 -- Creativity to vision the future and the skills to bring that vision into reality.

- A passion for cooperatives and community and alignment with Co-op values

-- A willingness to fully embrace the Co-op’s commitment to consensus decision-making at all levels, which requires excellent interpersonal skills and an understanding of facilitation, as well as a sincere respect for the views of others.
